

What is my phone number?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

How can we be safe around water?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

How can we be safe
around cars?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Who owns your body?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

How can we be safe around water?

What are some situations where you might be near water besides swimming?

Who needs to wear a life jacket?
(hint: even adults are required by law to wear them in boats)

Do only bad swimmers drown?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

What is my phone number?

Play games to memorize important numbers.

Let your child practice calling mom, dad, and grandparents from your phone.

Make your phone number the password to any low-security technology your child uses.

Have your child help you find the house by reciting the address.

Let them write their address and phone number inside their books and other belongings.

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Who owns your body?

You're in charge of your body's safety and health—forever!

You can always say "no" to touches that make you uncomfortable, even if it's a grownup.

Your body is counting on you to keep it safe from injury. What are some ways you protect your body?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

How can we be safe around cars?

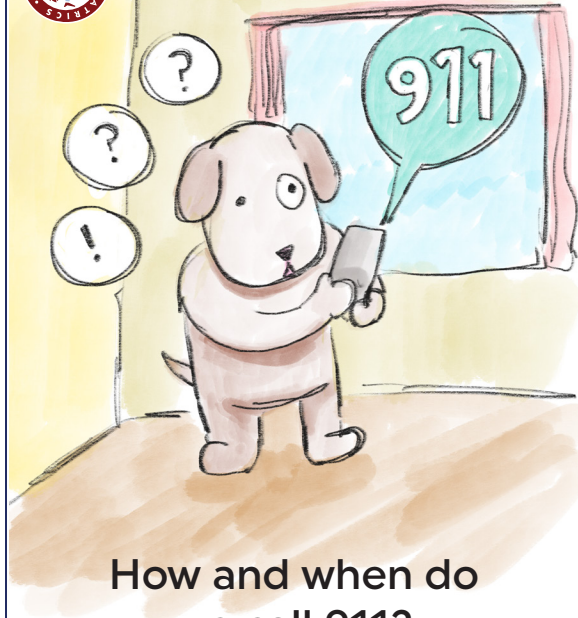

What do we inside cars to be safe?

How can we be safe outside cars?

What should these birds do if their ball is stuck under the car?

When you're sitting in my car, can you see the back bumper?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

How and when do we call 911?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

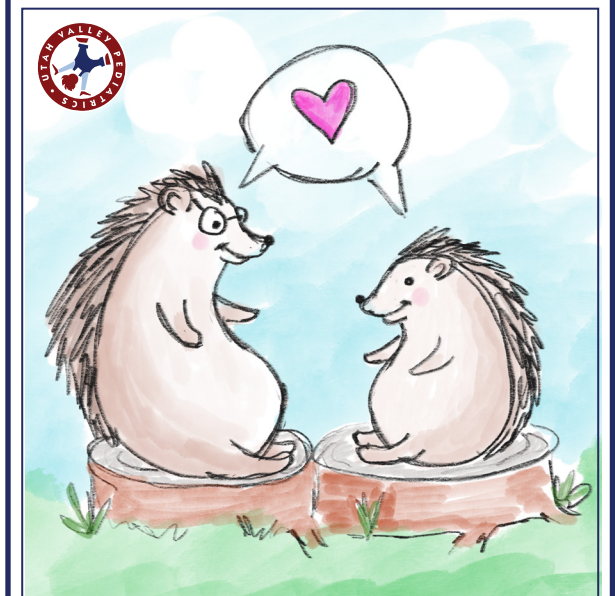

What should he do before leaving with his friend?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Listen to your inner voice. It's ok to say, "no."

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Do we need to keep a secret from Mom or Dad?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

What should he do before leaving with his friend?

Where are you allowed to play?

What do you do before going outside that area?

What if you have permission to go to _____'s house and on the way, you see a carnival in the park?

What could you say if a really nice lady asks you to come help her find her lost baby/purse/puppy?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

How and when do we call 911?

What are some situations when we should call 911?

Where should go before calling? (get to safety)

Show me how you call.
(practice on a powered-off phone)

I'll be the dispatcher. Tell me what's going on. Where are you?

Role play asking questions and giving instructions.

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Do we need to keep a secret from Mom or Dad?

What's a secret?

Are all secrets good or bad?

How can you tell the difference between a happy secret and a not-happy secret?

Is there any good reason to keep a secret from mom and dad?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Listen to your inner voice. It's ok to say, "no."

Do we always have to go along with the games our friends suggest?

What if your friend says his parents don't mind but you know your mom and dad say something is not allowed. Which rule is right?

What could you say if your friend wants you to do something you think is dangerous or scary?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

What should you do if you're lost?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Is it ok to take a gift from a stranger?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Write your phone number, one digit per piece.
Cut the pieces apart and let your child rearrange them
to learn your number.

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

Is it ok to take a gift from a stranger?

When are some times strangers might hand you something?

When is it ok? When should you ask?

What if someone wants to give you something, but they need you to go with them to pick it up or choose your favorite color?

If someone gives you something, do you owe them anything?

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.

What should you do if you're lost?

Stay put or go looking?

Show me how you'd call for help.

Who are some good ideas of people that could help?

What if no one comes around to ask for help?

Tip: Try playing "Marco Polo" to demonstrate how much harder it is to find someone who keeps moving.

© Copyright 2017, Utah Valley Pediatrics. All Rights Reserved.